Dear Tom:

(1) Albeit very belated, many thanks for your msg (ATTACHMENT I).

Dear Harold and Tom:

(2) Referring to our previous conversations, I thank you again for your willingness to write an article about our projects on GUS and Peace Gaming which is to be appeared in the alumni magazine "Cable" of your Polytechnic University.

(3) I then sent you the following two materials which might be helpful to your composition;

(a) "Global learning comes true,"
<LCCN_Newsletter_N7.pdf>, which is an interview made by a French e-journal, "The Learning Citizen," November, 2003 — pls see its Page 15 to 17
<<http://tinyurl.com/yrqye5>>,

(b) "Interview with Takeshi Utsumi" by Parker Rossman (September 17, 2004)
<<http://tinyurl.com/fnxxt>>.

Dear Parker:

Many thanks for this and those below, too.

This is a very good writing.

(6) Pls send me your draft so that I can work on it together.

Dear Parker:

(7) Many thanks for your msg (ATTACHMENT II), in response to our following previous list distribution;

(05/23/07) (1) John Eger's new essay on Global Communication Policy and (2) "Stop the Utsumi" campaign

<<http://tinyurl.com/24ykfw>>

I am sorry to say that I don't know anyone who is doing the kind of the gaming as you proposed.

Best, Tak

Subject: Many thanks

Hi Tak,

I keep meaning to drop you a note (here it is!) to thank you for your efforts with Poly, obtaining a new copy of your book for our library, and for meeting with me to discuss your vision.

All to the good! I trust that Harold will pursue the interview/article for Cable, but please keep me informed.

Again, great to meet with you again and my best to you on this remarkable project.

Tom
