

On Creativity

There is nothing higher than creativeness, and there is no greater joy. Therefore – create and rejoice! Be daring in creative flight.
“Create courageously!”

Let thought undistorted and unrestricted be impressed in your being. Let it be free from the shadow of the censor’s scalpel.

Be true to yourself because there is nothing higher than creativeness.
