Dear Takeshi:

The Governor of Imo State, Nigeria, Chief Ikedi Ohakim asked me to send this letter on his behalf.

It is with great pleasure and humility that I send you these greetings as requested by the Governor, on behalf of him self, his Economic Team that visited the USA and the entire people of Imo State.

His visit to the US was remarkably successful due in no small measure, by meeting with you and your colleagues to discuss ways we can collaborate to make Imo State the "Model State" of Nigeria. The investment potentials in our State are limitless, and we will like to partner with you in harnessing these potentials.

In the 'New Face of Imo', it is not about his handsome face, but rather, a new attitude, a new way of doing things, a Government that MUST work effectively and efficiently, and must put people first. The new face means new investment opportunities, a Government that must fast track everything to meet up with new realities and the 21st century ideas. We implore you to join us to make these a reality for our Administration and our people.

We also would like to use this opportunity to invite you to be a part of our first Economic Summit of this Administration from December 13 - 15, 2007. We hope you will find it convenient, and please take this as our official invitation to participate.

If there are any concerns or issues you may have, please feel free to contact us directly or through Dr Kevin Adotama, his U.S. Trade Rep.

Thank you again and God bless.
